Folk Festival: Friday 23rd/Saturday 24th June

Some of the UK's best folk acts are heading to Hanbury for our annual folk festival. Headlining on Saturday 24th June will be celebrated songwriters Kathryn Roberts and Sean Lakeman - twice winners of the BBC Radio 2 Folk Award for Best Duo. Also on stage will be powerful Celtic-inspired Roving Crows, a quartet well-known for their energetic live performances. The eight acts on the Marquee Stage also include quirky singer-songwriter Ruth Theodore and eclectic bluesy trio Mumbo Jumbo. Tickets from £22 advance. Camping available Friday to Sunday.

The festival also includes an intimate gig on Friday 23rd June by traditional folk singer and multi-instrumentalist Steve Turner which will be followed by an open mic session.

Tickets available online, by phone or at The Gift Shop.

Pudding Nights: 30th June/1st July

Our most popular theme night returns very soon and it is so popular it is almost booked up already. As a result we have added an extra night rather than make you wait until the next one! Tickets are available on-line or by phone. For those who haven't been before, the evening begins with a light starter before you are invited choose as many puddings as you like all night. The menu will include a range of approximately 20 hot or cold puds and a cheese board.

If you can't make the June/July dates, our next Pudding Night is on Friday 13th October.

'Wild and Free' Photography Exhibition

A selling exhibition of stunning images by local photographer Jenny Webster. Every photo that is taken of an animal in its own environment, which Jenny proudly calls 'Wild and Free'. The exhibition is open from 29th April to 5th June.

A selection of Jenny's work is also currently available in The Gift Shop's Artist Viewing Gallery.
